

Publications and Speaking Engagements Liz Hallifax

Thought global leader in Risk Governance in emerging risk - Responsible use of AI, Cyber, Industry 4.0 and innovator in digital space invited to present in Risk and Compliance, Government and digital conferences.

2025 VIC Round Table – Whole of Organisation Governance – Focus area Data Privacy. Invited by the GIA to share global experience on different data privacy regulations globally and challenges in building a consistent global risk framework for Data Privacy.

2025 VIC GRMF -Governance Institute of Australia – Panellist – “Risk culture challenge for responsibility and cultures”, drew on my global expertise on multicultural teams, perception and articulation of risk and building high performing teams especially AI and Cyber. Annual GRMF event organised by GIA, attended by 185 Company secretaries, non-executive directors and CROs.

2025 Governance Risk and Compliance VIC Summit – Panellist “Keeping up with pace of ESG change and Aligning with New Mandatory Standards”. Honoured to be panellist sharing learning from global perspective on lived experience of Europe’s transition to ISSB and where Australia positions themselves to adopt new reporting requirements. Distinguished conference attended by +350 GRC experts and CROs across industry.

2024 Chemeca - Chemical Engineering (IChemE and Engineers Australia) – Leading the Change in Digital Transformation across Sustainability and Safety Responsibly using AI”. Key-note speaker on Unlocking potential with AI in FMCG and Operating environment.

2024 Sustainable Minerals AI and Cyber Master Class – University of Queensland _Lecture on Responsible use of AI Act and implication to resource industry. A Case Study on machine learning applications across supply chain and unlock potential while ensuring explainable AI. Attended by Australian resource and energy industry representatives across QLD and VIC.

2023 Tech in Government Expo- “Industry 4.0 Industry implication”. Digital Transformation for Government Tech Professionals and partners. Honoured to Chair the AI Stream for Tech in Government understanding Australian AI Act and implications. Attended by +2000 delegates across Government and Tech in Canberra.

2023 AI and Automation VIC Summit Chair –”. Honoured to be Chair for the day , event organised by Forefront events bringing operators, innovators and AI start up to discuss art of the possible, EU AI Act and what Australia can expect, attended by 280 delegates in Melbourne.

2022 Chemeca - Chemical Engineering (IChemE and Engineers Australia) – Disrupt, Sustain and Adopt “Industry 4.0 Industry implication”. Honoured to be plenary speaker for second year to more distinguished conference with Chemical Engineer CEOs and Entrepreneurs

2020 – Chemical Engineering Student Summit – Evolution in energy sector. Invited speaker on breath of experience working in evolving energy sector offshore oil and gas, refining, LNG, biofuel to hydrogen.

2019 IChemE Hazards conference Plenary Opening speaker Hazards Asia Pacific – Theme Competency and capability. Presented on “Building global Risk Talent - Technical authority framework”.

2014 IChemE Hazards Conference speaker – “Managing effective change in Offshore operations.”